February is a month when we start feeling the disappearance of chilly days and the weather gradually warms up. Succeeding winter and preceding summer it's time for arrival of Spring, the queen of seasons. Spring is a season of clichés – birds chirping, bees buzzing, it's love that's in the air. Spring is called the best of seasons, but cold and flu affects the most for no good reasons!

This year we find a scary scene in the horizon when our country got a fresh jolt due to a huge amount of fraud case in a Nationalized bank.

Let's hope it doesn't affect our spirit of activities.

NOTIFICATION

ANNUAL PICNIC

It was a wintry Sunday morning on 11th February 2017, the Day selected for our annual Picnic. The alumni members, their family and friends totalling 55 heads assembled at Gate no. 3 of the University. All boarded a luxury bus there when the journey started at 9.15 AM. The destination for the picnic spot was PG Garden, Sonarpur Mission Pally, near Sarada Vidyapith. Lip smacking breakfast with Luchi, Tarkari, Joynagorer Moya and Tea were served. Aadda and variety of extempore cultural programme kept everyone engaged with fun. A sumptuous lunch with rice, dal, alu bhaja, fish curry and mutton kosha were served in the afternoon. Everyone enjoyed the day in the midst of the nature, a place not quite far from the city. The same luxury bus brought everyone back to Jadavpur by 5.30 PM. A wonderful time spent together.

LOK-NANDAN GAAN

Lok-nandan Gaan, a musical evening on folk songs of Bengal was arranged by the Cultural sub-committee in Dr. Triguna Sen auditorium at 6.00 PM on 27th February 2018.

1st half of the programme was Baul songs by Lakshman Das Baul and his associates. He sang a few popular baul songs and a few offbeat ones. With his charismatic high pitch voice and dancing he captured the minds of the audience.

After a while he told one of his associates Bamandas Singha to perform, his solo song drew attention of all the audience. At the end Lakshman Das baul and Bamandas Singha performed two consecutive chorus songs– worth appreciating was their depth in voice modulation and attractive dancing.

The last song was a very popular baul song “Milan hobe kato dine amar moner manusher sone....” The 2nd part of the programme was performance by two promising folk singers Rishi and Urmi, young artists of Zee Bangla SA RE GA MA PA famous. Baul songs are folk songs developed by bauls, a syncretic religious sect, in the domain of social practices, rituals, festive and historical events. Urmi sang folk songs which captures the moods of morning hours, whereas Rishi performed those of evening moods after the days’ laborious activity got over. A few offbeat folk songs like ‘Alkap’ (popular in the district of Murshidabad) describing the after-effect of the battle of Plassey; and also Khan’ folk songs of Dinajpur.

Towards the end of the programme, on request of both the performers Purabi Pishi

(Sm. Purabi Bhattacharya, '71 Beng., Treasurer of the Alumni Association) joined them on the stage. They sang folk song together with Purabi Pishi. It was a marvelous musical soiree when audience gave them an enthusiastic round of applause.
