The News Bulletin

Volume XXXXI

September, 2014

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Dear Members,

A newly formed executive committee with its elected members, past presidents of the association, chairpersons and conveners of different sub committees are on the job since May end 2014. The sub-committees have already gained momentum to organize lot of interesting and enjoyable programmes for members and their families. The students of Jadavpur University are seen standing in long queues in the alumni building for submitting their applications to secure alumni scholarships. The alumni Gold medals for departmental toppers will be handed over to them soon. "Sanibarar Ashar" and "Budhbarar Adda" are getting more popularity. After the successful Monsoon festival and Bijaya Sammelani, the Group is actively engaged in arranging the Annual Social on the last Sunday of December 2014. A Wonderful musical evening with different programmes was held with Swami Muktesananda Maharaj and Abhirup Guhathakurata. Ms Nupurchanda Ghosh presented some melodious songs on the occasion of sesqui-centennial birth anniversary of Kanta Kabi Rajanikanta Sen. Under the direction of Sri Siddharta Roychowdhury, Ms. Atreyi Mazumder and students of Bistar kept the audience spell bound with their musical performance.

Members appreciated the popular lecture on 'developing the spirit of innovativeness on the way of Sir Jagadish Chandra Bose' delivered by Prof. Amit Ganguly. The Memorial Lecture Committee invited two distinguished personalities, Prof. Susanta Dutta Gupta, VC, Viswa Bharati University and Dr. Bikash Chandra Sinha, former Director, Saha Institute of Nuclear Physics to deliver Prof. Hem Chandra Guha & Prof. Hira Lal Roy memorial annual lectures respectively, and the audience left the auditorium with enriched knowledge.

The different branches and chapters of the association are being coordinated now. An experienced committee is studying minutely the details for proposing amendments of the Rules & Regulations of the association. The assets of the association are being tabulated and will be completed soon. The auditorium and the retiring rooms will be equipped with better facilities for users.

Money is required for every endeavor but more than money, we are in need of good and sincere young workers. Our doors are open, we welcome young alumnus so that we can take up new ventures with their help. The Alumni Association can contribute towards the growth of the university in many ways. Successful, reputed and knowledgeable alumni staying abroad and in different parts of our country could be invited to deliver series of lectures to JU students who in turn could acquire state-of-the-art knowledge in respective fields, from them.

In the end, before closing I would like to inform that the executive committee of the association unanimously condemned the police action on the university campus during September'14. An appeal for restoring normality in the university and request for commencement of classes was sent to all concerned.

Namaskar,
Asit Kumar Mitra

EDITORIAL

Friends,

The Alumni publishes two bi-annually Bulletins synthesizing the salient news of the Association up to March and September of each year. These two publications are in physical/electronic format, besides which Monthly News are also disseminated by email to those who have their email IDs registered with us.

The Monthly News sent by email on a regular basis involves minimal expenditure on the Association, in sharp contrast to the printed Bulletin with rising inflation and galloping costs impacting on the meager financial resources of the Association. A major component is the cost of postage.

Since many members have preferred to read the Bulletin with the feel of the publication on their fingers, the publication sub-committee will continue to bring out this issue in paper form.

However, the high costs compel us to seek monetary support from our members as well as from our Chapters. This support can be in the form of advertisements or plain vanilla money donations. Will some of you heed our appeal and act?

Our best wishes to each of you and your families and also for a
